How Vestmo Tracks and Generates Signals per Position* per Week

About Vestmo Global Research, Inc.

Vestmo Global Research, Inc., was founded in 1999 by experienced investment managers, seeking to enhance returns, manage risk, and increase the odds of investment success. Utilizing their expertise and extensive research network, they created the Vestmo All-Terrain signals, providing deeper insights and competitive advantage by capturing market changes across diverse asset markets.

. Vestmo All-Terrain Signal Methodology

The Vestmo All-Terrain signals are weekly generated by combining forward-looking factors into a composite score. The factors and weights are based on the user's objective and time frames. The composite score serves two purposes: a) determining if an asset is in a favorable or unfavorable market condition, and b) indicating the strength of that condition. When the composite score surpasses specific thresholds, a new signal is generated, signaling a change in conditions. Refer to the chart below for an example

Vestmo All-Terrain Strategy

With Vestmo All-Terrain signals, investors gain a competitive edge by adapting to changing conditions and navigating market cycles. They develop deeper investment insights, allowing them to shift their positions into assets with better conditions or move to cash for wealth preservation purposes.
